CHRISTMAS AT ARLINGTON.

For several years past, says the Washington Republican, it has been the custom of the scholars of the Columbia School at Arlington to give an entertainment during the Christmas holidays. Mr. J. R. Barnhouse, the present efficient teacher of the school, not wishing to be outdone by his predecessors, determined to give an exhibition on Christmas night, the proceeds to be expended for the purchase of a large bell for the school house. The school room walls were adorned with flags, festoons and garlands of a most imposing appearance. Mr. J. R. Barnhouse, with a brief, modest prefatory address of welcome to the audience, opened the exercises; after which the following programme was admirably carried out. The pupils severally acquitted themselves commendably: Declamations, (first speech in public) Master Walter McCormic; "The Little Orator," Miss Annie Buchly; "Work and Play," Miss Olive Austic; "Mother, Home and Heaven," Miss Annie Munson; "Little Roan Orator," Mass Annie Munson; "Charlay's Colt," Master Frank Whitehead; "Charley's Shilling," Miss Ida Dyer; song, "One Little Colt," Master Frank Whitehead; "Charley's Shilling," Miss Ida Dyer; song, "One Little Boon, Love;" dialogue, "Aunt Bethiali's Journey," Miss Nellie Close, Miss Lilian Munson, Miss Roseland Close and Miss Hattle Buchly; declamations, "Young Lady of the Present Day," Miss Mary Matthews; "Dame Duck's Lessons," Miss Gertie Smith; "Dame Duck's Lessons," Miss Gertie Smith; song, "Sacred Scenes;" declamations, "That Little Vulgar Boy," Miss Lillian Munson; "The New Baby—A Boy's Solilequy," Master Johnny Huli; "Smith," Master Henry Vorce; "Pop,"
Miss Hattie Buehly; dialogue, "The Train Tomorrow," Miss Aggic Abbott, Masters Johnny
Hull and Fred. Graham; song, "Cheerfulness;"
declamations, "Little Rob," Master Charlie
Vorce; "Don't Depend on Daddy," Sardie Abbott; reading, "Emma and Johnnie" Miss Etta bott; reading, "Emma and Johnnie," Miss Elia Crecker; declamations, "Only Sixteen," Miss Aggie Abbot; "Curtain Lecture," Miss Maggie O Dowd; reading, "Trial of Pickwick," Mr. M. Simms; vocal and instrumental music, by Mr. Simms and his daughters. The reading and the reciting of a number of farcical pieces by Mr. J. R. Barnhouse afforded a great deal of good natured merriment, particularly his imitations of various styles of reading, which were pronounced by all as excellent. The school house was crowded to its utmost capacity, and several were unable to gain admission who had been desirous of attending.

RUSSIA AND THE SUEZ CANAL.—The Moscow Gazette, in an article on the Suez canal transaction has the following: "There can be no doubt as to the political importance of the event. England's ancient preponderance has property rights—that is, territorial rights in connect at Washington with through New York Egypt. England most unceremoniously has trains.

English have long been accustomed to have everything their own way in Asia, Africa and 3.00, 4.00, 5.00, 6.00 and 7.00 p. m. Australia, to do what they please in all parts of the world, and to rule less without fearing, or indeed expecting, opposition. They now no longer content themselves with seizing distant lands, but pocket the key to the whole of southern and eastern Europe, constituting themselves the sole and absolute judges of what is good and profitable for the other countries concerned. We all know the jealousy and supercilious hauteur marking British policy toward other countries. We have not forgotten the furious rage excited by the Khiva campaign ; we remember the envious intrigues by which England endeavored to tie Russia's hands and place a horde of Central Asiatic nomads under the protection of international law. Now that England has seized the Suez canal, is there any one so naive as to anticipate that other countries' interests will be protected by Great Bri-

Tue St. Petersburg Golos, having enumerated the various corps composing the British army, cannot repress these remarks: this, then, is the mighty force which causes the Times newspaper to assume so menacing and supercilious a tone. The brief abstract we have received of the Times' article does not as yet give us a clear idea with what object this article has been written, and what is the meaning of the very strange mobilization measure attributed to the British War Office.'

The fifth series of the obligations of the Russian land credit company will be offered for subscription immediately. Russia is about to ask China for permission to send her caravans to the celestial empire, not only by Kalgan, but also by the Jokisgate to Tungehow and Tientsin.

A Man's Chinese Neighbors.-The Raleigh (N. C.) News reports that Rev. Dr. Pritchard of that city referred in a sermon to a conversation held some years ago between Dr. Thomas E. Skinner, formerly of Raleigh, now of Georgia, and an anti-missionaryist. Dr. Skinner he said was soliciting aid for foreign missions, and applied to this gentleman who promptly repulsed him with the reply: "I don't believe in foreign missions. I won't give anything except to home missions. I want what I give to benefit my neighbors."

"Well," replied Dr. Skinner, "whom do you regard as your neighbors?"
"Why, those around me," replied the

"Do you mean those whose lands join yours?" inquired Dr. Skinner. "Yes."

"Well," said Dr. Skinner, "how much land do you own?"

"About five hundred acres."

"How far down do you owa?" inquired Dr. Skinner. "Why, I never thought of it before; but I suppose I own half way through." "Exactly," said Dr. Skinner. "I suppose you do, and I want this money for the Chinese -the men whose land joins yours on the bottom.'

The hardened brother had never thought of that, and gave a good sum for foreign mis-
